

Sandy Hook

Put the silverware down and step away from the buffet.

As a man thinks so is he

I placed before you life and death - choose life

Train up a child the way that he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it

Spare the rod and spoil the child

“Cain killed Abel” that would not have happened if they had gun control! Do you think negative feelings had more to do with the killing?

Silverware in a person's hand will not make them fat and removing the silverware from their hand will not make them skinny.

A person's mind their feelings and emotions have influence in what they do.

I placed before you life and death

- News media, video games, movies, music, books, etc.
- Is the content you search for and watch death, violence, hatred, envy, vengeance, etc?

What are you thinking on? What is before you?

Society is training people up, this world is a training ground and we are called out of this world and not to be a part of it.

We can choose life

- Uplifting programs that encourage and instruct us
- Music of praise and encouragement
- Seek to do others good

Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

Love is the answer that's been given to these things and the creator of this world says that's the only way it works.
